Subject: Job Opportunity: City of Vancouver Director, Business and Economy

Dear Mayor and Council,

I'm pleased to let you know that the posting for the City of Vancouver's new Director, Business and Economy is now live.

This person will be responsible for building and running the City's new in-house Business and Economy Office. This is a senior role, and we're seeking someone who ...

- is passionate about supporting local business and contributing to economic growth,
- is dynamic and energetic, a strong relationship builder and creative problem-solver, and
- has the right balance of understanding how local business works and understanding how local governments work.

More details in the posting below ...

Please share with your networks as appropriate.

Thanks,

Karen

Karen Levitt, Deputy City Manager (she/her)
