Good afternoon Mayor and Council,

This email provides an update from Arts Culture and Community Services on the current Social Policy Grant calls.

The Social Policy granting team has recently launched their call for applications for Core Support Grants (bi-annual) as well as Social Innovation Grants (annual) and various Capital Grants that are always open for intake. Please see below for details and forward onto those who may be interested as you see fit. Staff are happy to address questions for prospective applicants - contact information is included in the notices.

Core Support Grants (Closing date Nov 6th): Provide funding for the delivery of direct social services and to organizations that address inequities and conditions that create vulnerability for residents of Vancouver.

Social Innovation Project Grant (Closing Date Oct 4th): The current program focus provides funding to Black-led and Black-serving non-profits to create viable innovative projects that address social change, create inclusion and belonging.

Capital Grants (Rolling Intake): Funds social infrastructure improvement projects in Vancouver that improve health, safety, accessibility, and capacity of facilities serving Vancouver residents. The four granting streams include: Small, Medium, Childcare, and School-age Care Expansion Translated Notices for Core Support Grants can be found here. Translated Notice for Capital Grants are attached due to technical challenges with the website links. Noting that the Social Innovation Project Grant call closes October 4, staff will endeavor to share this information with Council sooner for future grant calls.

Should Council have any questions please contact margaret.wittgens@vancouver.ca and she will ensure questions are addressed through the weekly Q&A.

Thank you,

Sandra
