Dear s.22(1)

Re: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am responding to your request of May 1, 2025 under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act for:

Record of all letters, emails, and correspondence between the Consulate-General of the People's Republic of China in Vancouver and the Mayor's Office. Date range: October 1, 2016 to January 1, 2020.

All responsive records are attached.

Under Part 5 of the Act, you may ask the Information & Privacy Commissioner to review any matter related to the City's response to your FOI request by writing to: Office of the Information & Privacy Commissioner, info@oipc.bc.ca or by phoning 250-387-5629.

If you request a review, please provide the Commissioner's office with: 1) the request number (2025-264); 2) a copy of this letter; 3) a copy of your original request; and 4) detailed reasons why you are seeking the review.

Yours truly,

[Signed by Cobi Falconer]

TELEPHONE: (604) 873-7621
FAX NO. (604) 873-7655

Dear Mme. Tong:

Thank you very much for your congratulatory letter dated November 5, 2018. I am humbled and honoured that the people of Vancouver have chosen me to serve them for the next four years.

The friendly ties between China and the City of Vancouver are deeply valued by Council and our staff. Vancouver and Guangzhou have benefited from a strong sister-city relationship for over thirty-three years, and we will continue our effort to support the many exchanges and dialogues held between our cities.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for visiting me at Vancouver City Hall on December 4th. I enjoyed our conversation and I look forward to working with you to continue our close relationship with Guangzhou and the Consulate General of the People's Republic of China in Vancouver.

My sincere thanks for all of the important work the Consulate General of The People's Republic of China does for the local community. As we look ahead to 2019, I look forward to continuing to work with you and other members of the Consular Corps in Vancouver, to serve the diverse residents of Vancouver and build our international relationships.

Sincerely,

Kennedy Stewart
Mayor, City of Vancouver
