Dear s.22(1)

Re: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am responding to your request of June 12, 2025 under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act for:

1. Vancouver Police Department's (VPD) investigation records related to the January 2007 BC Place roof collapse, specifically concerning multiple police reports submitted by the applicant regarding the alleged removal or exclusion of critical engineering documentation; and
2. Any internal reviews, inter-departmental communications, or briefing notes involving:
 - a. The missing or suppressed engineering records;
 - b. The VPD's handling or closure of these allegations; and
 - c. Any City involvement, support, or oversight of the investigation process;
 - i. Any internal or external correspondence regarding missing engineering reports;
 - ii. Any decision memos or assessment documents generated as a result of my complaints; and
 - iii. Any materials indicating why certain engineering evidence was not considered or disclosed.

We have completed the search for responsive records for this request and no responsive records have been located. Staff in both Development, Building, and Licensing (DBL) and Engineering have confirmed that there are no records responsive to your request.

Under section 52 of the Act, and within 30 business days of receipt of this letter, you may ask the Information & Privacy Commissioner to review any matter related to the City's response to your FOI request by writing to: Office of the Information & Privacy Commissioner, info@oipc.bc.ca or by phoning 250-387-5629.

If you request a review, please provide the Commissioner's office with: 1) the request number (2025-358); 2) a copy of this letter; 3) a copy of your original request; and 4) detailed reasons why you are seeking the review.

Yours truly,

[Signed by Cobi Falconer]
