Subject: POSTPONEMENT - Ho'-kee-melh Kloshe Lum (375 Glen Drive) non-market housing announcement

Dear Mayor and Council,

We have been advised that the Ho'-kee-melh Kloshe Lum (375 Glen Drive) non-market housing announcement scheduled for March 6 has been postponed. This decision was made by the Office of the Minister of Housing and Municipal Affairs, as some project details are not yet finalized.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and will share updated event information once it becomes available.

For reference, the original invitation is included below.

Thanks,

Donny

City Manager
City of Vancouver

The City of Vancouver acknowledges that it is situated on the unceded traditional territories of the x m k y m (Musqueam), S wxwú7mesh (Squamish), and s lilw ta (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

Dear Mayor and Council,

You are invited to a media event to announce the opening of a new Indigenous-focused housing development at 375 Glen Drive. The building will provide nearly 200 homes, including non-market units, market rental units, transitional homes and shelter beds with associated services.

The City of Vancouver contributed land and capital funding for this important housing development. This project is a partnership with the City of Vancouver, CMHC, the Province, Aboriginal Housing Management Association (AHMA) and Vancouver Aboriginal Friendship Centre Society (VAFCS).

Event details:

Date: Friday, March 6, 2026

Time: 11:15 am

Address: 375 Glen Drive, Vancouver

- please use the entrance at 1045 E Hastings St.
- The event will take place on the 15th floor rooftop
- Parking is limited, but there is street parking in the surrounding area

The event will include a media tour of a vacant unit, shelter area and the community kitchen. BC Minister of Housing and Municipal Affairs Christine Boyle, MLA Joan Phillips and/or PS George Chow, federal MP Hedy Fry, and representatives from AMHA and VAFCS will be in attendance. We are currently coordinating with the Mayor's Office to confirm whether the Mayor or Deputy Mayor are available to speak as well.

Please RSVP to: media@vancouver.ca on Wednesday, March 4, should you plan to attend.
