Subject: FWC26 Spectator Route/"Last Mile" · Places to Visit

Hi –

We just want to make you aware, if you're not already, that the match day spectator route (also referred to as the "Last Mile") is open to the public – both for people holding BC Place tickets and those that do not have tickets.

The space is crowded and lively and full of activations that open at kickoff minus 4 hours … for this coming Thursday that is at 11 am. The main point of entry is at the Main Street–Science World Station @ Main and Terminal.

A reminder of key FWC26 sites open to the public:

1. FIFA Fan Festival at the PNE
2. Spectator Route (match days only)
3. Granville Street pedestrian zone
4. Granville Island watch parties
5. Destination Vancouver has a great listing of FWC26-related watch parties and events

Thanks,

Karen
