Dear s.22(1)

Re: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am responding to your request dated June 13, 2026 under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act for:

1. Record of any agreements, memoranda of understanding, protocols, or arrangements between the Vancouver Police Department and any United States agency, task force, or "command centre" based in Washington (state or D.C.) related to information sharing for FIFA World Cup 2026 security operations.
2. Records describing the categories of information shared with this command centre, including but not limited to: CCTV footage, drone surveillance data, biometric data, personal information collected during arrests, detentions, or stops, and any data from license plate readers or facial recognition systems.
3. Any Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) conducted regarding cross-border information sharing for World Cup security operations, including correspondence with the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for BC related to this PIA.
4. Records describing data retention, deletion, and access-control policies for information shared with or received from the Washington command centre.
5. Any records indicating whether this information-sharing arrangement is event-specific (limited to the FIFA World Cup period) or establishes an ongoing/standing arrangement beyond the tournament.

Date range: January 1, 2024 to June 1, 2026.

The Vancouver Police Department is a separate public body under the Act; therefore, we are transferring your request to the Information Services and Privacy Unit of the Vancouver Police Department pursuant to section 11 of the Act.
