REGULATIONS FOR RESEARCHERS

- No backpacks, briefcases, bags or containers are permitted in the research room. Leave all such items in the shelving provided.
- Consumption of food and beverages (including water) is not allowed in the research room.
- The research room is a quiet study area - conversation should be kept at an appropriate level and cell phones and pagers should be turned off or set to Silent mode.
- Researchers are given ONE box or file of documents at a time. It must be returned before another will be provided.
- Maintain all archival documents in their original order. Documents should not be removed from files FOR ANY PURPOSE.
- Only pencils may be used in the research room.
- Do not mark archival documents in any way.
- Do not leave archival documents unattended in your work area.
- When returning archival materials, give them to Archives staff IN PERSON. Do not leave documents unattended at the reference desk.
- Archives staff may refuse to provide service to researchers if they believe archival materials are being mishandled in any way.
- Copies of copyrighted works made for patrons are provided solely for research and private study; any other uses may require that the patron obtain the permission of the copyright owner.
- Archives staff may suspend or revoke research privileges for failure to abide by these rules, or for harassment or abuse of other patrons or Archives staff.

I have read the regulations provided on this form and agree to abide by them:
