FROM: Katrina Leckovic, Director, Legislative Operations & Deputy City Clerk

SUBJECT: Annual Report to Council - Advisory Committees

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide City Council with a comprehensive report of the activities undertaken by Type A advisory committees in 2016. Type A advisory committees are those committees established by Council, and which are advisory to Council. As set out in the December 16, 2014, Council resolution, each committee is required to provide an annual report to Council which describes its annual accomplishments.

Annual Events for Advisory Committee Members

There were three advisory committee member events held in 2016, organized by City Clerk's Office, which facilitated discussion amongst committee members and liaisons and provided training opportunities. These events were:

1. Advisory Committee Chairs' Meeting - March 30, 2016

This meeting provided an opportunity for discussion amongst advisory committee Chairs and Co-Chairs regarding planning for 2016. Discussion topics included resourcing for advisory committees, roles and scope of advisory committee activities, 2016 Council of Councils planning, and the 2017 advisory committee appointment process.

2. Advisory Committee Member Training - July 6, 2016

At this comprehensive training session, over 35 committee members received presentations from and asked questions of:

- Corporate Communications on media protocol, social media and the City's website;
- Access to Information on privacy, confidentiality and information sharing; and
- City Clerk's Office on civic agency roles and responsibilities, meeting procedures and the Code of Conduct policy.

All committee members were provided with updated Guidelines for Civic Agencies which explains committee/member roles and responsibilities, code of conduct, meeting procedures and media protocol.

3. Council of Councils - November 9, 2016

Over 80 participants received presentations from Ginger Gosnell-Myers, Aboriginal Relations Manager, and Lynda Gray, author of First Nations 101, engaged in networking activities, participated in a focused group activity on Vancouver as a City of Reconciliation and viewed advisory committee posters displaying annual accomplishments and future objective of each committee. These posters are available on each committee's webpage at Vancouver.ca. Participants were provided with a feedback survey following the event.

Advisory Committee Annual Reports

This section of the memorandum provides an overview of each committee's mandate and accomplishments for 2016 (in alphabetical order).

Type A advisory committees each have their own specific mandate (provided with each committee's report below) and also follow the following common terms of reference:

- provide input to City Council and city staff about issues of concern;
- consider any matters which may be referred to the committee by Council or staff;
- may take positions on policy initiatives from other levels of government within the mandate of the committee;
- work cooperatively with other agencies whose activities affect constituent communities, including initiating and developing relevant projects;
- act as a resource for staff doing public involvement process and/or civic events;
- exchange information with the constituent communities and the general public about relevant programs and issues of interest; and
- engage in outreach to disseminate information and encourage participation from constituent communities.

ACTIVE TRANSPORTATION POLICY COUNCIL (ATPC)

Mandate

The mandate of the Active Transportation Policy Council is to advise City Council on strategic priorities relating to walking, cycling, public transit, skateboarding, and all active transportation modes in Vancouver.

2016 Policy Council Accomplishments

1. Provided Input into Concrete Projects

The Active Transportation Policy Council, through its Projects Sub-Committee, provided detailed and ongoing feedback on dozens of projects this year including a development at Little Mountain, a spot improvement at Oak and 7th Avenue, a Park Board project at Balsam & Cornwall and a major project along West 10th Avenue.

2. Robson Square

ATPC's first motion ever in 2012 was about making 800 Robson Street car-free. This year, ATPC provided feedback and participated where possible, helping to keep the block of 800 Robson Street open to bicycling and skateboarding at pedestrian speeds, while mostly focussing on encouraging the space to flourish for gathering - all year 'round. ATPC also encouraged changes to the 700 and 900 blocks of Robson Street to make Robson Square and the surrounding area safer and more fun for gathering in public spaces, and for active transportation.

3. Intersection Safety

ATPC passed a motion on Intersection Safety. Since then there have been plans for recommended improvements in projects such as the 10th Avenue Project.

4. Arbutus Greenway

ATPC, together with other civic agencies and organizations, provided feedback which is being used to make the greenway inclusive, even at the initial, temporary phase.

5. Complete Streets Recommended Policies

ATPC's Policies Sub-Committee researched Complete Streets policies from municipalities in various global cities and recommended Complete Streets policies and guidelines to the City (including more car-free spaces) that showcase three North American cities with in-depth and encouraging policies that are ahead of Vancouver on this front. Now, the City has hired a staff person to review and develop Complete Streets policy recommendations.

6. Task Group on Criteria for New Active Transportation Routes

A task group of the ATPC is in the final stages of preparing a preliminary prioritization tool for recommending the next new active transportation routes within the City of Vancouver.

7. Presented at the 2016 Pro Walk Pro Bike Pro Place Conference

Represented skateboarding interests through a presentation at the 2016 Pro Walk Pro Bike Pro Place Conference in Vancouver, BC called Other Wheels: Integrating Skateboarding into Communities.

ARTS AND CULTURE POLICY COUNCIL (ACPC)

Mandate

The mandate of the Arts and Culture Policy Council is to advise Council and staff on all civic programs that relate to arts and culture, and ensure that arts and culture is appropriately represented in City Plans and policy initiatives. The ACPC also advises Council and staff on the Culture Plan for Vancouver 2008-2018 as it is developed, implemented and updated.

2016 Policy Council Accomplishments

1. Established Community Focus Group

Established a community focus group to identify priorities for the arts and culture community.

2. Established Sub-Committees to Further Arts and Culture Initiatives

Established three Sub-Committees including Community Engagement/Outreach Sub-Committee, Spaces Sub-Committee, and Strategic Liaison Sub-Committee, developing terms of reference for each.

3. Culture as Fourth Pillar of Sustainability

Conducted research and engaged in discussion of Culture as the Fourth Pillar of Sustainability within urban centres.

CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILIES ADVISORY COMMITTEE (CYFA)

Mandate

The mandate of the Children, Youth and Families Advisory Committee is to advise Council and staff on matters that relate to children, youth and families. If requested by the Court, the CYFAC is also mandated as a family court committee under the British Columbia Provincial Court Act and as a youth justice committee under the federal Youth Justice Act.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Consulted with Housing Staff on the Housing Mix Policy for Rezoning Projects

Committee members, including members in the under 14, and 15 to 21 age categories shared their lived experience with housing staff. In order to help inform staff, members discussed the new policy and spoke about the experiences of their families and others that they knew in relation to their housing situation.

2. Researched Best Practices for Youth Engagement

The Youth Engagement/Empowerment Working Group researched best practices for youth engagement and produced a report for the Committee. At the meeting in November, committee members used the Dotmocracy online tool to determine priorities for further investigation.

3. Education Advocacy

The Committee has done extensive advocacy around public education given the current situation at the Vancouver School Board. Multiple letters have been written to MLAs, Trustees, the Minister of Education, and Council in response to potential school closures, the Long Range Facilities Plan, the Restoration Budget, and calling for the re-establishment of a democratically elected Board of Education.

4. Meetings with Students and MLAs to Discuss Education

Committee members, in partnership with local students met with multiple MLAs to discuss budget issues related to public education and seismic upgrades. Students shared their experiences with their local MLAs and spoke about the need for more funding for their school programs.

5. Launched a Committee Facebook Social Media Page

With assistance from Kendra Taylor, Social Media Strategist, the Committee launched its Facebook page. The Social Media Sub-committee shares articles related to children, youth and families, and our agendas.

CIVIC ASSET NAMING COMMITTEE (CIAN)

Mandate

The mandate of the Civic Asset Naming Committee is to recommend names for streets and roads, development areas, pedestrian and cycling infrastructure, City-owned assets and facilities (excluding Parks and Library assets).

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Jack Uppal Street

Named a new road in the River District honouring Sikh pioneer, leader, and businessman Jack Uppal. The first South Asian name for a street in Vancouver.

2. Lahb Avenue

A new right of way in the redevelopment of the Arbutus Shopping Mall is the first Chinook word used for a Vancouver Street, recognizing the trading and working language of the Pacific Coast and First Nations loggers.

3. Reorganized and refined the Reserve List

The Reserve List was reorganized and refined to bring clarity and a focus to the list which is now sorted into names the committee has approved and assigned and those names which have been submitted but require further research.

4. Names added to the Reserve List

Leon Bibb, noted singer and activist; Naomi Frankenberg, four decades of service to the Jewish community; Thelma Ginsberg, for her leadership and work in the Jewish community; Otto Landauer, Jewish-German immigrant who became a noted Canadian photographer; Milton Wong, noted Chinese Canadian businessman and arts patron.

5. Diversity and Meaning

Strives for and respects diversity and inclusiveness in naming, the committee works to honour historical context in all its complexity and looks for sound connections to place.

CULTURAL COMMUNITIES ADVISORY COMMITTEE (CCAC)

Mandate

The mandate of the Cultural Communities Advisory Committee is to provide citizen input on issues of diversity and inclusion that affect the City of Vancouver.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Met with community residents to learn about local engagement practices and processes in regard to reaching out to underrepresented cultural groups

Met with diverse Vancouver residents and compiled feedback and analysed it. Drafted recommendations on how best to engage with underrepresented cultural groups especially for civic consultation and planning processes.

2. Created a framework to assess use/need of cultural spaces within the city

Created a survey to be distributed to ethnocultural groups that will assess their use/need of various spaces for their organization. This has been incorporated under the VIP as action item. Survey to be distributed in early 2017.

3. Provided feedback and advised on civic planning and development

How to engage Chinese-speaking seniors in the DTES/Chinatown area during development processes; provided feedback for the establishment of a local Citizen Assembly in the Grandview Woodland Local Area Plan; provided feedback for the Vancouver Immigration Partnership (in which one of CCAC's recommendations was adopted as an Action Item); provided feedback on the draft of Access Without Fear, provided advice for Downtown BIA future goals, and; advised planners on the North East False Creek development.

4. Outreach and Liaison, promotional/awareness work

Outreach to and/or advised other committees and City initiatives, etc., including Arts & Culture Committee, Vancouver Food Policy Council, St. Paul's Community Consultation, Diversity on Board, Pride Parade, and created a framework for Social Media outreach.

5. Meeting protocol and member agreement

Incorporated an Aboriginal acknowledgement at the beginning of all CCAC regular meetings and developed a CCAC Members/Community Agreement regarding meeting protocol and acknowledgement of members' rights and responsibilities.

LGBTQ2+ ADVISORY COMMITTEE (LGBTQ2+)

Mandate

The mandate of the LGBTQ2+ Advisory Committee is to:

- exchange information with the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, two-spirit and queer communities and the general public about relevant programs and issues of interest;
- work co-operatively with other civic agencies whose activities affect LGBTQ2+ communities, including initiating and developing relevant projects;
- provide input to City Council and city staff about issues of concern, including matters that require action by the City; and
- act as a resource for city staff doing public involvement processes.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Supported City Council's Trans Equality and Inclusive Vancouver Resolution

The Trans Inclusion Sub-Committee worked with the City to determine the necessity for the City to contract a study to determine its next steps for implementing Council's Trans Equality and Inclusive Vancouver resolution concerning transgender issues. The Trans Inclusion Sub-Committee also worked with the Policing Sub-Committee to provide constructive comments to the Vancouver Police Department about its training video and policy concerning transgender persons. The Trans Inclusion Sub-Committee will continue to review materials and provide advice to City Staff as well as to advise Council as requested.

2. Supported the City's Launch of Jim Deva Plaza

The Davie Village Revitalization Sub-Committee participated in all stakeholder meetings concerning the launch of Jim Deva Plaza. The Sub-Committee connected the City and the Davie Street Business Improvement Association with concerned LGBTQ2+ organizations and worked to ensure the success of the Jim Deva Plaza. The Davie Village Revitalization Sub-Committee are members of the Jim Deva Plaza Steering Committee established to manage the Plaza on an ongoing basis. The Plaza has been booked for more than 50 events from its July 2016 launch through the end of 2016.

3. Assisted City Staff with Developing Questionnaire for Homeless Count and Participated in Homeless Count Training and Homeless Count

The Youth Homelessness & Social Service Sub-Committee worked with City staff so the Homeless Count would be more LGBTQ2+ inclusive, participated in training others for the Homeless Count, particularly addressing training around LGBTQ2+ questions and members of the Sub-Committee participated in the Homeless Count. The Sub-Committee also met with City staff for a debrief on the matter and responds to staff's questions on an ongoing basis. This Sub-Committee is being retired as it has accomplished its goals.

4. Addressed Policing & Accountability

The Policing and Accountability Sub-Committee provided input to the Vancouver Police Department on a training video for police officers with respect to addressing transgender persons. The Sub-Committee also provided policy advice to the VPD concerning its transgender policies.

5. Raising Awareness of LGBTQ2+ Elder Issues

The Seniors Sub-Committee established quarterly meetings with stakeholders including senior coordinators at City Community Centres and non-governmental organizations. The Sub-Committee worked with the Park Board Staff Liaison to place posters of LGBTQ2+ elders at Community Centres for the 2016 International Day Against Homophobia and Transphobia. Members of the Seniors Sub-Committee attended programming concerning LGBTQ2+ Elder Abuse. They also attended the Senior's Advisory Committee's Housing Sub-Committee meetings and will continue to collaborate with that group concerning common goals.

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES ADVISORY COMMITTEE (PDAD)

Mandate

The mandate of the Persons with Disabilities Advisory Committee is to advise Council and staff on enhancing access for persons with disabilities to enable them to fully participate in City services and civic life.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Worked to Increase Access to Affordable and Suitable Housing for People with Disabilities

PDAD provided input to City staff and actively participated with key stakeholders in the Pearson/Dogwood Redevelopment to support a successful transition for Pearson residents and ensure an inclusive and accessible community on the Pearson/Dogwood lands. PDAD also participated with community partners to develop a comprehensive grant application and successfully obtain funding for a three-year project to fast-track matching wheelchair users to suitable housing units.

2. Advocated for Safe and Effective Transportation for People with Disabilities

PDAD gave input to the Provincial Government, the Passenger Transportation Board and Council concerning taxi and other vehicle for hire services, urging that safe and accessible services be required for all publicly-licensed transportation systems.

PDAD also participated in extensive consultations with City staff related to the proposed separated bike lanes on the West 10th Avenue medical corridor, with the goal of protecting the safety of vulnerable pedestrians and ensuring adequate accessible parking within the precinct.

3. Addressed Barriers to Inclusion within the City's Infrastructure

PDAD members were a strong and vocal presence at workshops and public consultations including those related to the South Creek Seawall, the Burrard Street renewal, Jim Deva Plaza and the new St. Paul's Hospital site, to name a few. PDAD members also worked with City staff to identify accessibility shortcomings in civic buildings and to ensure accessibility upgrades are incorporated when those buildings are renovated.

4. Began to Address Access and Inclusion of People with Disabilities in Civic Processes and Policies

Working with staff, the committee finalized comprehensive Events Guidelines for use by City staff at all City-run venues.

Recognizing that accessibility and inclusion issues are too-often overlooked or an afterthought, PDAD has begun the process of assisting the City to develop a comprehensive Persons with Disabilities strategy. This strategy will be designed to ensure that the City takes into account the equality rights of persons with disabilities when planning and delivering services, and to provide a road map to achieve the full respect of these rights.

RENTERS ADVISORY COMMITTEE (RADV)

Mandate

The mandate of the Renters Advisory Committee is to advocate for renters and renters issues to the City of Vancouver and other levels of government, advise Council on strategic City priorities relating to renters, monitor and respond to the impacts of provincial and federal legislation affecting tenants, and advise Council on enhancing access and inclusion for renters in developing City policy and civic life.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Residential Tenancy Act Reform

At the request of Mayor and Council, the committee completed a comprehensive review of the Residential Tenancy Act (RTA) and consulted with stakeholders on proposed changes. RADV proposed a suite of recommended changes to the RTA and forwarded those changes to Council whom in turn forwarded them to the Provincial Government. These reforms were common sense changes that would make the lives of renters of all kinds more secure.

2. A Voice on Renters Issues

The committee successfully established the committee as a credible voice for renters to the media. RADV was able to represent renters on a variety of issues including fixed-term leases, rental bidding apps and short-term rental companies (Airbnb).

3. A Community of Renters

Members of the committee were regularly asked to participate in community events and discussions. This has helped to start build an community of renters and people who support renters to help raise awareness of renters issues in Vancouver. The committee's online presence on Facebook is becoming a place for renters to share stories and hear from people facing similar challenges. The committee expect this community to play a key role in expanding renter advocacy in the coming years.

SENIORS ADVISORY COMMITTEE (SADV)

Mandate

The mandate of the Seniors Advisory Committee is to:

- provide input to City Council and staff about issues related to aging and seniors;
- provide input to Council and staff on enhancing accessing access and inclusion for seniors to fully participate in City services and civic life;
- monitor City programs to ensure that needs of seniors and their families are considered.

2016 Committee Accomplishments

1. Social Housing Definition

SADV gave a presentation to Council to help clarify the definition of "social housing." This resulted in a significant amendment to the motion that Council was to approve.

2. Accessible Public Toilets

Passed by Council, the committee's motion called on staff to consider including accessible public toilets in all current and future planning projects.

3. 10th Avenue Corridor (Medical Precinct) Design

The committee worked with staff and the Persons with Disabilities Advisory Committee to help ensure that the corridor is safe and accessible for all the pedestrians, cyclists, and motorists.

4. Arbutus Corridor Design Recommendations

SADV worked with staff to help ensure that this project meets the goals of the City's Age-Friendly Action Plan.

5. 49th Avenue Bus Route Changes

Although unsuccessful, SADV strongly championed the needs of seniors and young families in Killarney who were disadvantaged by changes to this route.

6. Social Isolation & Loneliness Project

The committee started a project to consult with community agencies to determine best practices for reducing social isolation and loneliness among older adults in Vancouver. This project, commencing next year, has received joint funding from Vancouver Coastal Health and the City's Social Policy Group.

7. National Seniors Day Events

In concert with the Vancouver Public Library, SADV hosted a Seniors Day celebration which included a well-attended debate between federal candidates on aging-related issues. This event has encouraged other agencies, library branches, and community centres to host their own Seniors Day events.
