MOVED BY Commissioner Preus
SECONDED BY Commissioner Macdonald

WHEREAS

1. The City of Vancouver has received a development permit application from James Wu Architect, RH Architects for a 13 storey (proposed height of 41.91 m) hotel and restaurant development at 80 Powell Street, which is a former CPR right of way, in the HA-2 (Gastown Heritage Area); and
2. The proposed development's site plan preserves the CPR right of way as a civic artifact, making it visible and accessible through building form and landscape design;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

- A. THAT the Vancouver Heritage Commission, having reviewed the development application and the Heritage Impact Assessment prepared by John Atkin CAHP, supports the application as presented, including the relaxation of the HA-2 (Gastown Heritage Area) 22.9 meter height limit, on the condition that the development's site plan preserves the CPR right of way making it visible and publicly accessible secured on title through the ground plane's form of development and landscape design.
- B. THAT the Vancouver Heritage Commission recommends the applicant explore opportunities to enhance the public realm experience to reflect the historical materials used and the vibrant nature of Gastown.
