

CITY-WIDE PLAN UPDATE

Vancouver City Planning Commission (10-23-2019)

The City of Vancouver is on the unceded traditional territory of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations.

These lands are the foundation of thousands of years of living culture of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh peoples.

We acknowledge hən'qəmin'əm' and Skwxwú7mesh as the original languages of these lands.

ACTIVATOR CIRCLES

A photograph of a meeting room with large windows. A woman in a dark blazer stands at a whiteboard, pointing at it. A group of people are seated in a circle, facing her. The room has a modern feel with a grey wall and a large window looking out onto a red brick building. The floor is dark wood. The text 'ACTIVATOR CIRCLES' is overlaid in a teal box at the top left.

An overhead view of a group of approximately ten people sitting around a large, light-colored rectangular table. The table is covered with various documents, including a large map with green highlighted areas. There are also several coffee cups, a small plate of snacks, and a smartphone on the table. The people are engaged in a discussion, with some looking at the documents and others looking towards the center of the table. The background is a wooden floor.

Action While Planning

Advancing key initiatives under the umbrella of The Vancouver Plan, e.g:

- Climate Emergency Response
- Housing Vancouver + rental incentives
- Transit Station Area Planning (scoping)
- Others (e.g. Complete Community Pilots)

An aerial photograph of a coastal path. The path is paved and runs along a rocky shoreline. A person in a blue shirt is running on the path. To the left of the path is the ocean with visible waves and rocks. To the right of the path is a dense forest of evergreen trees. The overall scene is serene and scenic.
