UPDATE ABOUT COVID-19

Carnegie Centre, Evelyne Saller Centre, and The Gathering Place are expanding services and programs at the community centres. While we are looking forward to welcoming you back into the centres, it is important to know that the community centres will look and feel very different than they did prior to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Here are some important things to know:
• Everyone is expected to wear a mask when visiting a City of Vancouver facility. Masks will be offered to any patrons that needs one.
• Food service will move back to Centre cafeterias.
• Food will be available to go, with dine-in options added.
• A la carte menus and pricing will resume at Carnegie Centre and The Gathering Place.
• Building capacities will be monitored and enforced by staff.
• Some spaces in the Centres will remain closed to the public.
• Limited programming will be available. Check with each Centre for more information.

It is still very important that you:
• Wash your hands for 20 seconds on a regular basis
• stay home or connect with a health care provider if you are sick.
• Cough and sneeze into a tissue or your elbow
• Stay at least 2 metres apart from other people
• Do not meet in large groups

We are looking forward to seeing you again and welcoming you back into the centres.

Speak with a staff person on site or visit vancouver.ca/covid19 for more information.

Carnegie Centre, Evelyne Saller Centre and The Gathering Place continue to be here for you. See reverse for the services we are currently providing.
