

Looking for Easter Long-Weekend Activities?

The Vancouver Board of Parks and Recreation are pleased to announce that will be a number of programs and activities to enjoy to celebrate Easter and spring. In addition to swim and rink programming, our wonderful Community Centre Associations are offering countless activities for families throughout the City.

This list is a sample of what is being offered, so we encourage you to check-in with your local community centre to find out what else is happening. Registration can be limited.
