

Employment Lands & Economy Review

External Advisory Group Meeting #2

April 9, 2019

Employment Lands and Economy Review

Purpose

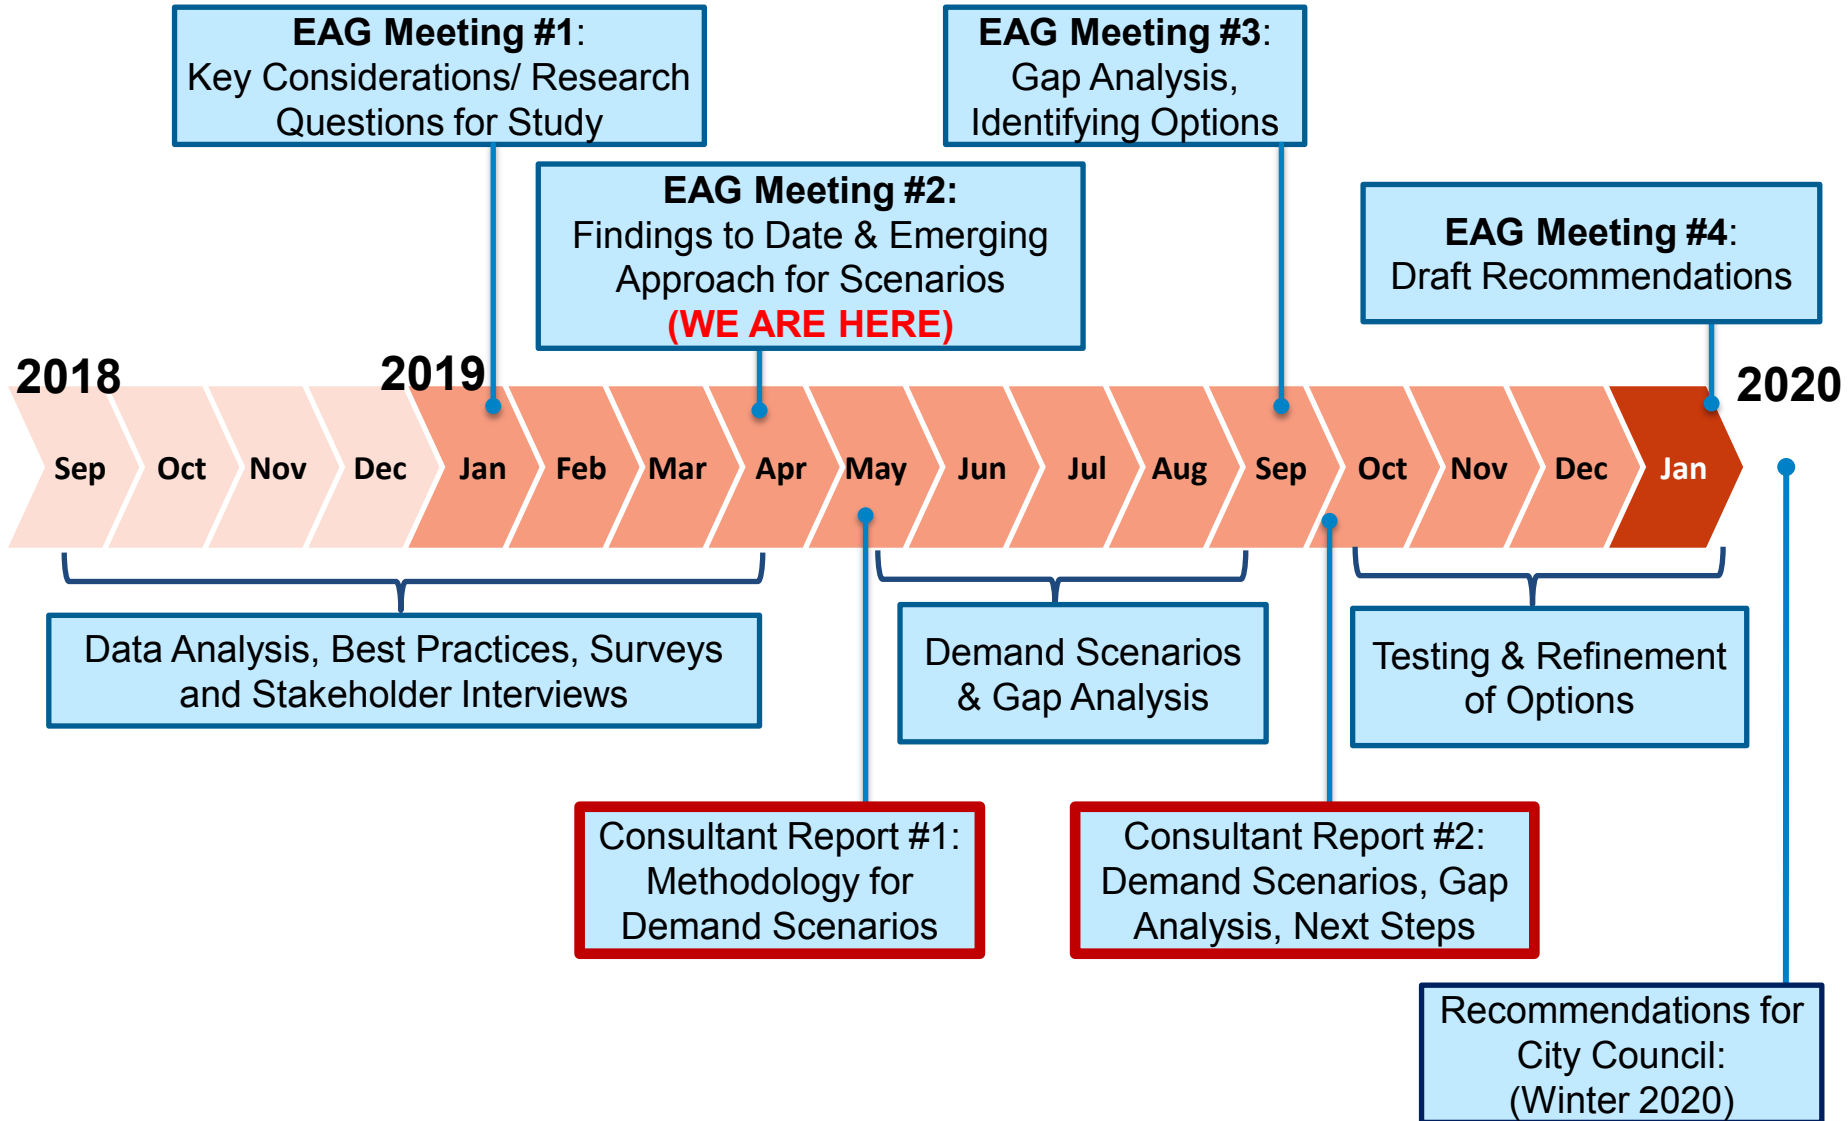

- A land use policy plan to ensure an appropriate supply of land to support the future growth of our economy

Involves

- Providing a city-wide overview ‘snapshot’ of Vancouver’s economy and employment lands
- Reviewing existing policies, plans and initiatives – looking at capacity, forecasts and fit
- Establishing policy directions and actions for the future consistent with City goals

Project Timeline

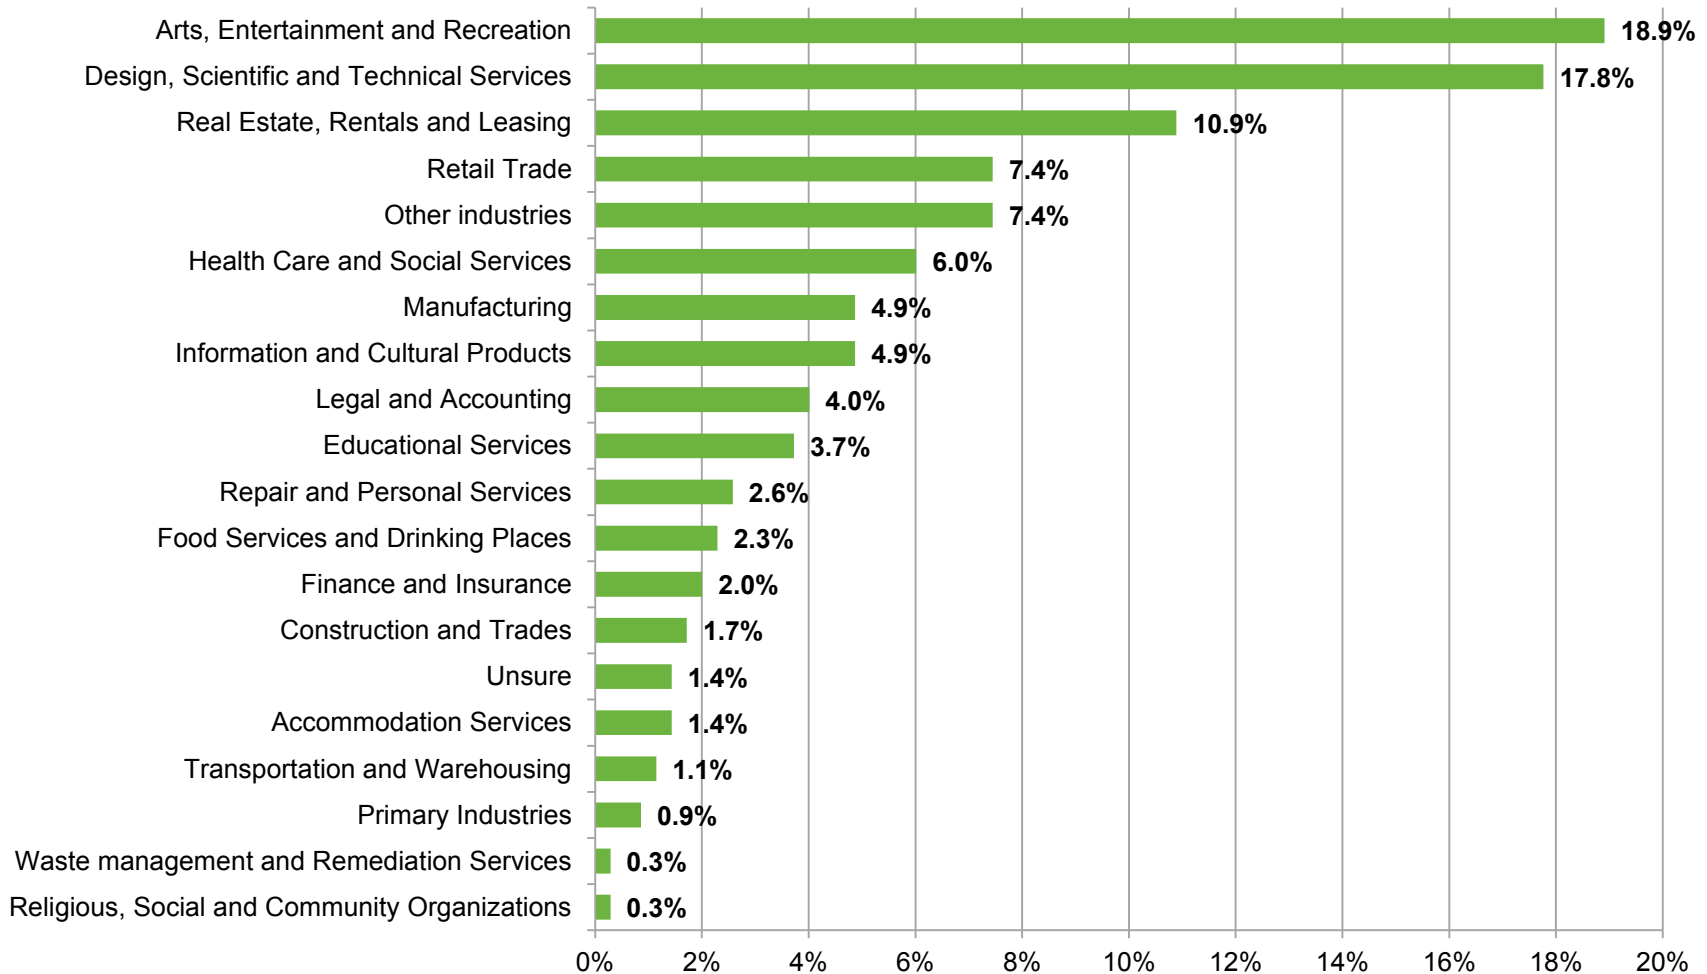

What are We Hearing

Engagement Tactics	Examples of Themes Identified So Far
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• External Advisory Group• Interviews with Key Stakeholders• Presentations to Interested Groups• Survey of Vancouver Businesses*• Survey of Vancouver Workers*	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Unaffordable Housing and Space• Increased Automation and AI• The Digital & Creative Economy• Changes in Global Trade• Labour Advantages• Alternative Work Arrangements• Climate Change

Surveys are open until April 22nd
www.vancouver.ca/employment-lands

Business Survey Responses By Sector

351 responses received representing 400 business locations in Vancouver

Workers Survey Responses By Sector

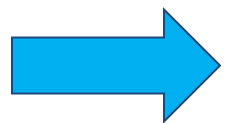

1,725 Total Responses To-Date

*Surveys are open until April 22nd
www.vancouver.ca/employment-lands 6

On-Going Opportunities for Input:

- Follow-Up Email(s) with Summary and Feedback Questionnaire
- Business Survey
- Workers Survey
- Roadshow Presentations to Key Groups

Next EAG Meeting: Fall 2019