Mr. Sabadlan, and Hiroko Kobayashi, Development Planner, led the review of a presentation titled “302 Water Street Edward Hotel” and highlighted:

- Main goals of the Heritage Incentive Program (HIP):
 - Foster retention, stewardship and upgrade of the city’s heritage resources
 - Financially assist heritage conservation and seismic upgrades
 - Support the City’s major initiatives and programs
 - Ensure long term protection of heritage resources
- Edward Hotel proposal is in the application phase
- HIP is recommending a grant of up to $991,700

- HIP grant application areas of need for the Edward Hotel:
 - Vertical addition to accommodate change of use from restaurant and office to restaurant and hotel
 - Two-storey addition
 - Stabilization, cleaning and repair of unreinforced exterior masonry
 - Storefront rehabilitation to reflect original historic configuration
- Proposed bylaw changes are needed to accommodate the change to restaurant, office and hotel
- Existing conditions vs. proposed design:
 - New two-storey addition to the Edward Hotel
 - Cleaning and repair of existing masonry
 - Storefront rehabilitation
- The proposed addition will have no shadow impacts on parks or public spaces
- Rooftop amenity space planned will not exceed 75 feet
- Input requested from GHAPC:
 - Massing, height and articulation of proposed two-storey addition above the roofline
 - Architectural expression of the storefront rehabilitation
 - Extent of proposed structural safety and building system upgrading.

Guest Arrived

Councillor Sarah Kirby-Yung joined the meeting at 4:43 p.m.

Mr. Sabadlan requested GHAPC members to disclose any conflicts of interest.

Colin Tougas disclosed his affiliation with Read Jones Christoffersen Ltd. and recused himself from the discussion.

Gillian Brennen and Mark Thompson, MCM Partnership, and Donald Luxton, Donald Luxton and Associates, led the review of a presentation titled “302 Water Street Gastown Historic Area Planning Committee” and highlighted:

- Edward Hotel is considered a character defining structure in Gastown
- Changes to the building in 1919 were at the storefront level
- Lower level is open with cast-iron columns and a change in fenestration occurred in 1919 to the current storefront structure
- Goal is to preserve the structure and character of the building
- Seismic upgrading is needed
- Preservation and conservation work to be undertaken:
 - Sandstone masonry paint will be removed and recoated with appropriate mineral paint
 - Architectural metal work and cornice will be rehabilitated, seismically upgraded and repainted
 - Windows will require functional changes
- Building addition will be recessed and softened with rounded corners
- The addition will be light and transparent to differentiate it from the original structure
- Retention of the existing patio that wraps onto Water Street
- Garbage and recycling facilities will be moved into the building from the laneway
- Rooftop will be landscaped.

In response to questions from the Committee, the applicant provided the following information:

- The rounded corners of the addition are compatible with the heritage building requirements to make additions compatible, distinguishable and subordinate
- The rounded corners and recessed addition visually recede and do not distract from the heritage building below it
- Additions are seen as modern in relation to the heritage elements and therefore distinguishable from the rest of Gastown
- A diaphragm to connect the floors to the vertical structure is installed to upgrade the seismic capability of the existing structure
- Roof anchors could be installed for ease of accessibility to the exterior of the building
- No original interior elements have been identified
- Channel glass will be flush with the existing glass
- Roof top is open with no plans for a cover
- Services will remain in the back lane but moved into the building
- Addition is recessed to follow guidelines and not challenge the original heritage structure
- Rehabilitation of the ground floor façade in keeping with the renovations of 1919:
 - More material from the 1919 renovation has survived
 - Respect for the evolution of the building
 - Façade is set for restoration

Guest Departed

Councillor Sarah Kirby-Yung departed the meeting at 5:36 p.m.

- The addition is light and translucent to make it visually recede and retain the prominence of the heritage elements.

Discussion ensued on:

- Concern that the addition is too distinguishable and does not reflect the historic Gastown aesthetic:
 - The addition feels like an extension of the neighbouring building
 - The set back addition with rounded corners has no aesthetic appeal
- Consultants ensure requirements are met for safety upgrades
- Sandstone and metal cornice rehabilitation and will ensure durability
- Seismic upgrades needed
- Concern regarding a future rooftop addition and future planning
- Concern regarding the restoration to the 1919 specifications instead of 1906 specifications
- Addition is approaching the maximum height constraint of 75 feet
- Rooftop amenities are desirable
- Suggestion to explore different textures, colours and materials

MOVED by Jeremy Cutler
SECONDED by Alyssa Myshok
