

HERITAGE ACTION PLAN:

APRIL 2015

CONSULTATION ON FIRST SHAUGHNESSY
RECOMMENDATIONS

Summary of Responses to Questionnaire #3
May 2015

Background:

- As part of the City's consultation on proposed changes to enhance heritage conservation in the First Shaughnessy district, the City conducted a survey to gauge opinions on the proposal to establish a Heritage Conservation Area for First Shaughnessy and proposed changes to current zoning regulations.
- The questionnaire ran from April 29 to May 10, 2015.
- The survey was made available at open houses (paper survey) and an open link to the survey was placed on the Heritage Action Plan page of the City of Vancouver's website.

Who did we hear from?

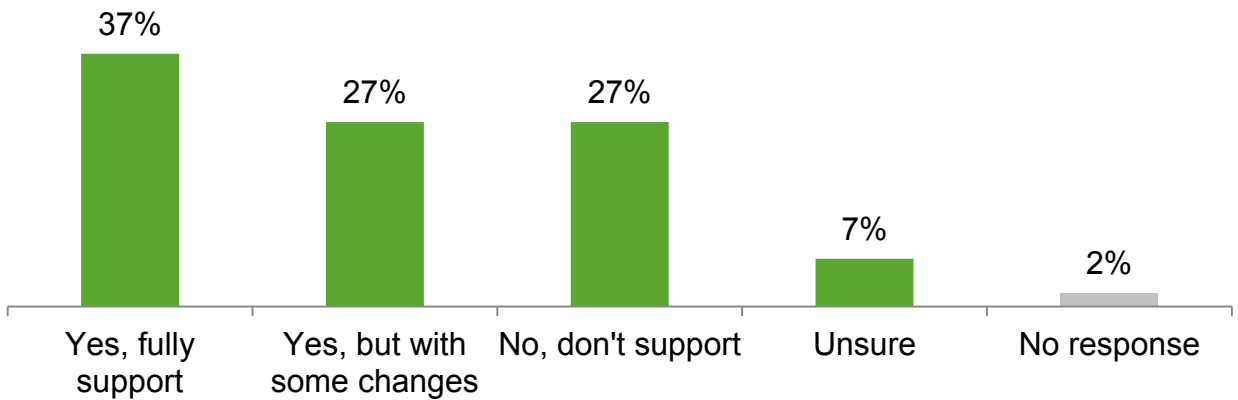

- Two-thirds of respondents were a home-owner in First Shaughnessy and slightly less than one-third have some other connection to the area. No respondents were renters in First Shaughnessy.
- Roughly two-thirds of respondents were over the age of 50, while just under one-third were the age of 50.
- There was a relatively equal representation across most residential zones of the City (downtown, Northeast, Northwest, and Southeast Vancouver). Fewer respondents were residents of Southwest Vancouver compared to the other residential zones.
