The screenshot shows the Homewood Pathfinder app interface. At the top, it says "Homewood Pathfinder Powered by Homeweb". Below that, it says "Lukas, we recommend this resource". There is a short paragraph of text: "Sometimes, engaging in an online course is all that's needed or may be all you're looking for. Check out a few resources and if you feel you need more support, come back and use Pathfinder again for additional guidance." Below this is a card for a resource titled "Respect in the Workplace". The card text says: "This course helps participants learn when unwelcome or confrontational workplace situations 'cross the line' and qualify as instances of harassment, discrimination, bullying and/or violence. The course also helps participants understand the importance of complying with policies regarding respectful workplace conduct." There is a search bar below the text.
