Vancouver Building By-law Article 1A.1.1.2. This By-law is enacted to set standards in the general public interest. It is enacted and retained on the understanding and specifically expressed condition that it creates no duty whatsoever on the City of Vancouver, the Chief Building Official or any employee of the City of Vancouver to enforce its provisions, and on the further condition that a failure to administer or enforce its provisions, or the incomplete or inadequate administration or enforcement of its provisions, shall not give rise to a cause of action in favour of any person whatsoever. The issuance of any permit, including an occupancy permit, is not a representation, warranty or statement that the By-law has been complied with, and the issuance thereof in error shall not give rise to a cause of action. Accordingly, words defining the responsibilities and authority of the Chief Building Official shall be construed to be internal administrative directions and not as creating a duty.

Article 1A.3.4.1. The granting of a permit, the approval of the drawings and specifications or the making of inspections by the Chief Building Official shall not in any way relieve the owner of a building from the full responsibility for carrying out the work or having the work carried out in accordance with this By-law including ensuring that the occupancy of the building, or any part thereof, is in accordance with terms of the occupancy permit, and including compliance with any special conditions made under the provision of Article 1A.6.1.4.
