

Vancouver Mayor's Office Staffing Update - Trevor Ford named as Permanent Chief of Staff

For Immediate Release
November 28, 2023

VANCOUVER, BC – Today, Mayor Ken Sim has named Trevor Ford his permanent Chief of Staff. Ford has served in the role as interim since June 2023.

In his time in the position, Trevor Ford has played an instrumental role in shaping the Mayor's Office, navigating the complexities of city governance, and engaging with senior levels of government.

"I am thrilled to make Trevor my permanent Chief of Staff," stated Mayor Ken Sim. "He has consistently exhibited a commitment to excellence and a passion for improving the lives of Vancouverites. He has more than stepped up to the plate, and I am excited that he has accepted the role."

Ford has brought his wealth of experience to the office, including his prior work in Indigenous engagement, community engagement, and federal politics. He has been a part of Mayor Ken Sim's office since his inauguration, starting off as the Mayor's Director of Operations.

"It's a privilege and an honour to have the opportunity to contribute to our City in such a meaningful way," said Ford. "I am excited to continue to support Mayor Ken Sim and carry out his vision."

- 30 -

Media contact:

Maria Veras, Press Secretary
Office of the Mayor
maria.veras@vancouver.ca