Message from the SCCA Board

Beautiful Fall is here, and with it an exciting roster of programs and events for the community! Summer was busy with day camps that included neighbourhood adventures, arts and crafts, and out-trips. Seniors enjoyed Summer Cruisers outings across Greater Vancouver. Our summer community kitchen program and berry picking trips were a huge success.

We could not be more excited about our beautiful new North wall mural from Indigenous artists Bracken Corlett, Ocean Hyland, Atheana Picha and Kelsey Sparrow. The mural was two years in the making and is in partnership with the Vancouver School Board, with support from the Vancouver Park Board and through the Communities and Artists Shifting Culture Grant (COV). Painting began in July and it was such a thrill to see it evolve day by day. We are so grateful to the artists and cultural vision holders, whose vision communicates and connects us all to this land and community.

New programming starting this fall includes pilates, adult ballet, cartooning & creativity, chess club and a women's personal safety workshop with the VPD on Sept 26. We're in the last season of our 50th year and will be celebrating with a big community party on September 10. Join us outside the back of the centre between 11am-2pm for entertainment, food, carnival games and more! Thank you to all the alumni who have made Strathcona Community Centre a hub of the community over the years.
