

TEMPORARY MODULAR HOUSING

THE LOT AT 688 CAMBIE STREET IS BEING CONSIDERED AS A SITE FOR TEMPORARY MODULAR HOUSING

The City of Vancouver, in partnership with the Vancouver Affordable Housing Agency (VAHA) and BC Housing, is building temporary modular housing on various sites across the city to create much-needed housing for people experiencing homelessness.

The site is expected to have two temporary modular housing buildings. Each building would be three storeys and contain approximately 50 studio homes for single occupancy. At least 10% of the units would be wheelchair accessible. The buildings would be in place for three to five years, with the possibility to extend another five years and would be managed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, by an experienced non-profit housing operator.

The temporary modular housing would not delay or impact the delivery of the new Vancouver Art Gallery designated for this piece of land.

HOW YOU CAN LEARN MORE

- The project partners will hold a Community Information Session to answer questions, and listen to the community's feedback on the proposed project.
- Staff will conduct walkabouts to connect with residents and businesses.
- Input will be considered by the Director of Planning when deciding on a development permit for the project.
