

On Saturday, April 5, Vancouver voters will elect two City Councillors

Who can vote?

To be eligible to vote, you must:

- Be at least 18 years old on election day, April 5, 2025
- Be a Canadian citizen
- Have lived in BC for at least six months immediately before registration day
- Live in Vancouver, no minimum days required
- Not be disqualified by law from voting

Property owners who don't live in Vancouver may still be eligible to vote. Visit vancouver.ca/NRPE to learn more.

Special notes

- Permanent residents cannot vote
- University of British Columbia/University Endowment Lands residents are not eligible to vote in this By-election

Are you registered?

If you are registered on the most current available Provincial list of voters prepared under the Election Act, then you are automatically on the Vancouver Voters List. If you are not registered, you can do so when you vote.

If you are registering to vote at a voting location, you will be asked to complete and sign a registration form and show two pieces of identification that establish your residence and identity, at least one must include your signature. The following documents are examples of acceptable ID documents:

- Band membership card or Certificate of Indian Status
- BC Driver's Licence
- BC Identification Card (BCID)
- BC Services Card
- Canadian Citizenship Card
- Canadian Passport
- Debit or credit card
- Government cheque or cheque stub
- Old Age Security Identification Card
- Prescription medication containers
- Property tax assessment/notice
- Social Insurance Number Card
- Student card
- Utility bill

You can also swear a declaration if you have only one piece of identification.

If you have no fixed address

Register by providing a general location (example: intersection names) or the address of a shelter or social agency you use in Vancouver.

Not sure?

Visit vancouver.ca/vote to use the Am I registered to vote? tool. Non-Resident Property Electors (NRPEs)—voters who have owned property in Vancouver for more than 30 days but are not resident electors in another BC municipality—may register at the time of voting.

NRPEs must bring proof of ownership and, if applicable, the Consent of Registered Owners for Non-Resident Property Elector Registration form. These forms can be found and completed in advance at vancouver.ca/nrpe.
