

VANCOUVER PARKS GOLF 2025 TOURNAMENT PACKAGE

Your top choice for memorable tournaments

Welcome to Vancouver Parks Golf, where you have the choice of three championship golf courses, each conveniently located just minutes from downtown.

Our offerings are perfect for any event, be it a corporate function or a family gathering. With varied course options, we cater to different skill levels, offering a suitable and enjoyable experience for all participants.

Our culinary team, led by chef Mark Halyk, is ready to tailor menus to suit your group's specific tastes and requirements.

Each course is maintained with the utmost care, and our championship course clubhouses provide a welcoming environment for post-game gatherings.

Thank you for considering Vancouver Parks Golf for your next tournament.

Note: Our tournament play accommodates a minimum of 20 and a maximum of 76 players with consecutive tee times. Please be aware that Vancouver Parks Golf does not offer shotgun starts at any of our courses.

Tournament services include:

- Personalized event planning assistance from our dedicated tournament coordinator and professional golf staff.
- Reserved tee times.
- A full 18-hole round at your chosen course.
- Complimentary gift cards for prizes or merchandise from our championship course golf shops (exclusively for championship course players).
- An exclusive 10% discount on golf shop merchandise purchased by guests on the day of your event.
- Free usage of pull carts.
- Complimentary warm up balls at the driving range 30 minutes prior to your event (available at Fraserview and McCleery courses).
- A diverse range of food and beverage choices to fulfill your needs.

Step #1: Explore our courses and green fee options

Fraserview Golf Course: Our flagship destination

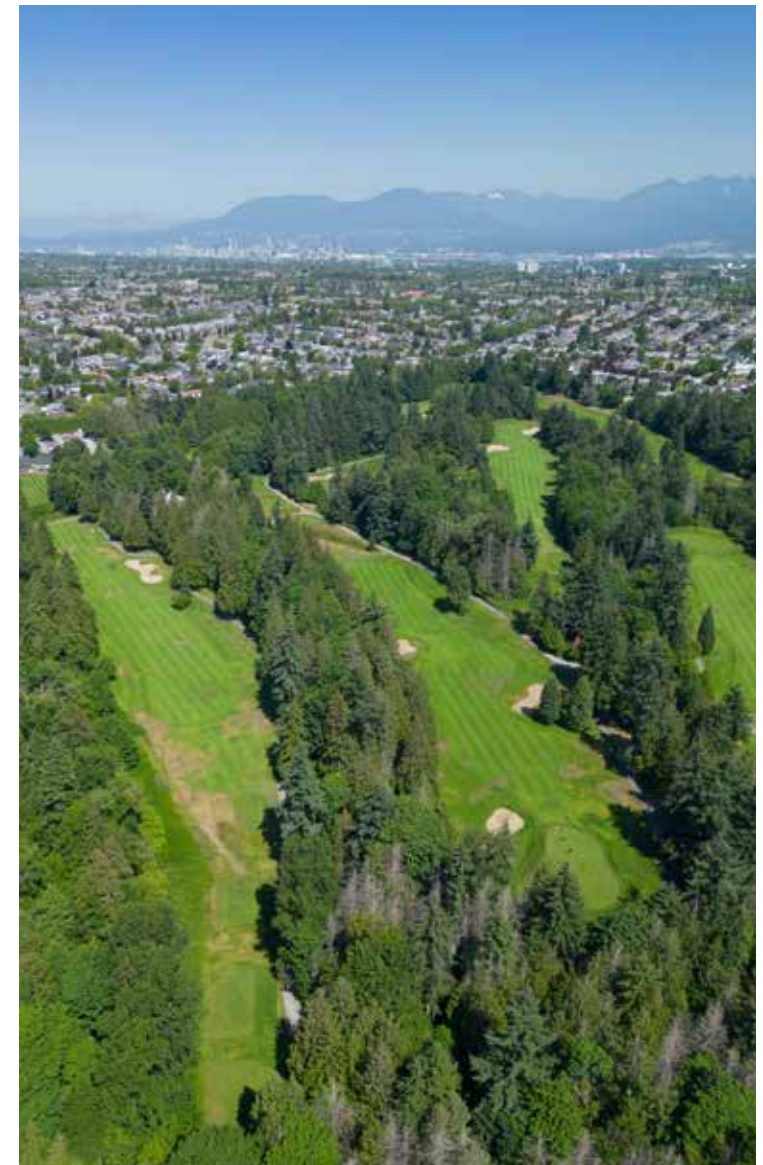

Located just 20 minutes from downtown Vancouver, Fraserview Golf Course offers a serene experience amidst a forest setting. This beautifully maintained course, known for its tree-lined fairways and views of the Fraser River, is a 6,692-yard, Par 72 challenge, ideal for serious golfers.

As one of the few golf courses in British Columbia certified as an Audubon International Cooperative Sanctuary — less than five percent — Fraserview stands as a leader in environmental stewardship. The course is a thriving habitat for a diverse range of wildlife, making bird and animal sightings a common delight for players.

As one of Western Canada's most sought-after courses, Fraserview provides an exceptional opportunity for your guests to experience an exclusive golfing event.

Green fee pricing per person:

November to April: $72 + GST
May to October: $102 + GST

McCleery Golf Course: Nature's haven meets golfing challenge

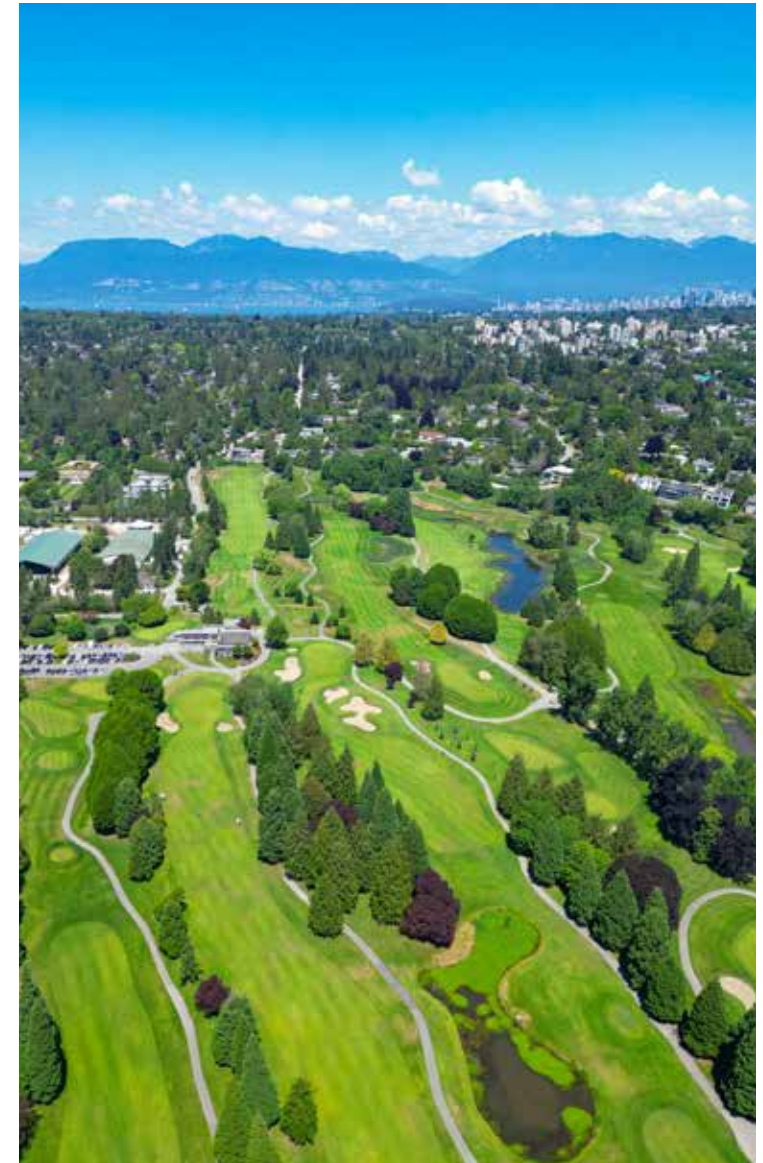

Nestled near the airport in the tranquil Dunbar Southlands neighbourhood, McCleery Golf Course is not just a golfing destination but also a sanctuary for an array of wildlife.

Golfers here enjoy a scenic and challenging experience among narrow fairways and numerous ponds.

Formerly hosting the Vancouver Open, this par 71/72, 6,527-yard course, complete with a modern 32-stall driving range, offers an immersive golfing experience harmoniously blended with nature.

Green fee pricing per person:

November to April: $68 + GST
May to October: $92 + GST

Langara Golf Course: Lower Mainland's driest golf course

Langara Golf Course, renowned for its traditional layout with unique large rolling greens, is now also celebrated as the driest course in Lower Mainland. Thanks to the installation of 83,000 meters of drainage pipe, golf enthusiasts of all levels can enjoy superb playing conditions throughout the year.

Located just a half block from the Canada Line Skytrain station and 15 minutes from downtown or the airport, Langara is a Par 71, 6,261-yard course that challenges beginners and experienced players alike. Its proximity to Queen Elizabeth Pitch & Putt also offers diverse golfing experiences for groups with varying skills.

Green fee pricing per person:

November to April: $70 + GST
May to October: $95 + GST
