

Part 1

1] On Sept. 11, 2010, at the University of British Columbia (UBC), violence occurred at a UBC fraternity party, after several officers were assaulted while trying to break up the huge crowd. University RCMP were first called to the fraternity house on Westbrook Mall around 11:30 p.m. Saturday, but when they arrived officers found the party was bigger and more violent than expected. Vancouver Police were also called into help control the violence that night. Please send me all records you hold on that event.

Part 2

SYNOPSIS

ASSIST FEDERAL AGENCY

Author : VA2293 MARTIN, DANIEL

Related date : Sun, 12 Sep. 2010 at 00:30

---

On 2010-09-11 at approximately 23:30 hrs a request for cover was made from the UBC RCMP detachment in response to a large group fighting at 2880 Westbrook Mall at UBC. Several VPD units responded to the request for cover and assisted with crowd management. The bulk of the group consisted of several hundred intoxicated youths/teens attending a fraternity party. The crowd was quickly dispersed and the situation was under control at which point the VPD members were no longer required.

OCCURRENCE REPORT

NARRATIVE

Author : VA2293 MARTIN, DANIEL

Related date : Sun, 12 Sep. 2010 at 01:08

---

BACKGROUND

=====

On 2010-09-11 at approximately 23:30 hrs an emergency broadcast was made over the police radio requesting code 3 cover at 2880 Westbrook Mall on UBC property. Initial information provided made reference to RCMP officers at UBC requesting code 3 cover to deal with a large group fighting outside of 2880 Westbrook Mall.